

Hearing the Voice of God - Part 4: Through People

Exodus 4:24-26; 18:1-23

God uses people to _____ into our lives.

1. God may speak to you through people who are _____ with you or have _____ _____ you—Exodus 4:24-26

- Circumcision was the sign of God's covenant with Israel. Moses neglected it for one of his sons, even though he knew it was the right thing to do.
- God was going to kill Moses for not obeying the Lord in this area.
- Zipporah had to perform the circumcision and was angry about it.

Zipporah showed Moses the value of doing what was right—no matter the _____.

2. God may speak to you through people who you wouldn't _____.

- Jethro is bringing Moses' family to him to reunite them after Moses sent them back from the circumcision incident.
- Jethro is the pagan, priest of Midian, yet God is speaking through Jethro to bring restoration to Moses' family and to show Moses a better way to lead Israel.

"If you do this thing, and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all this people will also go to their place in peace." - Exodus 18:23

What other people tell us should be a _____ of what God says to us.

- Sometimes the solution to your problem takes work too, but it's worth it in the end.

3. God may use _____ _____ to impact someone's life for eternity.

"And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh... and how the LORD had delivered them.... (and Jethro said,) 'Now I know that the LORD is greater than all the gods.'" - Exodus 18:8,11
