

Bring It Home - Part 4: Project the Vision

1st base: Connect with your heart—it's the foundation of parenting.

2nd base: Direct - Parents are the primary disciplers of their kids.

3rd base: Correct the error when they do wrong so they can do right.

Home plate: Project the vision of being a _____ - that God's story didn't end in the Bible—it continues today, and He _____ us to be part of it.

How to Give Your Kids a World Changer Vision

1. Tie their _____ to God's design for His purposes—Proverbs 22:6; Psalm 139:13-18

- Each of us is God's one-of-a-kind exquisite woven tapestry.
- He has days and actions planned for us that can only be accomplished by being sensitive to and partnering with the Holy Spirit.

Some Plans are Public – Very _____ – David

Some Plans are Private – _____ – Dorcas

2. Model compassion and _____ - John 6:9

3. Model a life of faith and Spirit-_____, not just comfort or predictability - Acts 1:4-5,8; Ephesians 5:18

4. Let Jesus, the Truth, guide your _____ life & pass it on to your kids

We need to let Jesus guide our whole life: work ethic, discipline—doing the right thing even when it is hard, mental toughness, self-acceptance and personal worth, communication skills, conflict resolution, sexual purity, a moral compass of right and wrong. The practice of the parents is often the practice of the children.
